ABSTRACT

Based on a 1982 survey of all accredited two-year institutions in the United States and members of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges (AACJC) in other countries, this directory provides a comprehensive list of 1,219 community, junior, and technical colleges, as well as statistics on enrollments and staffing for each. Following introductory material on the uses of the directory, information is presented on the AACJC, its mission and goals, and affiliated councils and associates. After explaining how to interpret the data, summarizing changes in institutions since the previous year, and defining key terms, the directory lists each two-year college alphabetically by state or country and provides the following information: location; chief executive officer; telephone number; year college classes began; type of control or affiliation; AACJC membership; state recognition or accrediting agency; type of academic calendar; October 1981 and 1982 full- and part-time and total enrollment; community education enrollment in 1981-82; full- and part-time and total faculty, professional staff, and administrators as of October 1982; and tuition and fees required in 1982-83. Next, tables are presented summarizing enrollment and personnel data by state for all institutions, and for public and independent colleges. Lists of community, junior, and technical college organizations and state administrators for two-year college education, and an alphabetical listing of colleges conclude the directory. Appendices include the AACJC Constitution. (AYC)

INTRODUCTION

The annual Community, Technical, and Junior College Directory is the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges' perennial best-seller — and with good reason. The Directory has gained the reputation of being the most authoritative, up-to-date compilation of statistics and facts on two-year colleges that is published. It is used by Congress, federal agencies, state education departments, colleges, and universities. Book vendors have standing orders for hundreds of copies as soon as it is off the press.

Hundreds of hours go into the production of the Directory. It all begins in August, when questionnaires are sent to all accredited two-year institutions in the country and to member institutions in other countries. The next several months are spent correcting and updating data and putting it into the computers. Parts of the Directory go to the typesetter in January and the rest in February. The result of all this work is a Directory that is accurate and current, thanks to the cooperation and responsible reporting of the participating colleges.

The AACJC Directory provides you with the only comprehensive list of names and address of two-year colleges, as well as names of their chief executive officers. We also tell you the accreditation status of the institution. Enrollment totals — part-time and full-time — are provided for fall of the current year (1982-83) and for fall of the previous academic year (1981-82). There are also figures for community service/adult education enrollments. You can find out how many faculty, staff, and administrators each institution employs. And you can compare tuition and fees — from college to college and state to state.

One section of the Directory summarizes and analyzes the data collected this year and makes comparisons with other years. The analyses are useful in helping to determine trends and patterns in growth and development. Again this year, two-year college enrollments increased. And while the increase is not as great as in some years past, it is significant because other segments of higher education are reporting enrollment declines.

The 1982 Directory was the first edition to include information on the organization, services, and goals of the Association. Also included were photographs of the Association's Board of Directors and a copy of the Constitution. Users of the Directory found the additional information helpful, and so it is a part of the publication again this year. A new addition is an AACJC publications list and order form.

Use this 1983 Directory with confidence. It is an accurate barometer of what is happening in community, technical, and junior colleges.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF COMMUNITY AND JUNIOR COLLEGES

The American Association of Community and Junior Colleges, headquartered in Washington, D.C., is the only organization whose sole purpose is to represent the interests of the 1,219 public and private community, technical, and junior colleges of the nation.

The mission of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges is to exert leadership, act as advocate, and provide services in support of community, technical, and junior colleges, as these institutions deliver accessible educational opportunities designed to address the needs of the individuals, organizations, and communities forming their constituencies.

ADVOCACY

AACJC has reached out with missionary zeal to governmental decision makers at the national, state, and local levels to speak on behalf of the mission and needs of community, technical, and junior colleges, their staffs, and their students. AACJC has been particularly effective in convincing federal officials, members of Congress, and other leaders of the value of community, technical, and junior colleges.

The Association of Community College Trustees and AACJC have formed the Joint Commission on Federal Relations to address with "one voice, one agenda" the Congress, federal agencies, and other national organizations. Such advocacy is helping to ensure a fair share of federal funding and student financial aid.

In cooperation with ACCT, AACJC has undertaken a series of initiatives aimed at "Putting America Back to Work" through closer working relationships between business, industry, labor, government, and the colleges.

Advocacy also involves telling the two-year college story to the general public by providing information to the media through press releases, public service radio and television announcements, publications, and staff contact.

LEADERSHIP

Since 1920, when the American Association of Junior Colleges was founded, college presidents and administrators have relied on AACJC. The name was changed in 1972 to reflect more accurately its membership. For the most part, histories of higher education have tended to ignore community colleges; AACJC has been a leader in bringing the achievements of two-year postsecondary colleges into the light of day by helping to develop literature the academic world respects. More recently, AACJC has again demonstrated leadership by increasing the emphasis on Opportunity with Excellence provided by member institutions. Quality teaching and learning in colleges that reach out to serve the many, not just the privileged few, continues to be preached and practiced by AACJC leaders. Now, at a time when the United State must reevaluate its priorities in terms of painful economic realities, AACJC has called for nothing less than a comprehensive national policy on human resources development—an example of shining leadership unmatched by any other educational association.

SERVICE

Advocacy is a service. Leadership is a service. But, in its dedication to the advancement of community, technical, and junior colleges, AACJC provides much more.

As the most comprehensive organization in the U.S. representing community-based postsecondary institutions, AACJC serves as:

- A means of identifying and giving national recognition to emerging leaders for the future—individuals, institutions, and ideas.
- The only community, technical, and junior college voice for hundreds of national meetings, committees, councils, and commissions.
- A respected reference for appointment recommendations to membership on federal commissions, advisory bodies, and other notable organizations.
- A forum for members' institutional and personal views that will influence the future of education and the nation.
- A singular source of information collected by AACJC and unavailable elsewhere (this Directory, for example).
- A sounding board and clearinghouse for cost-effective, innovative ideas and people.
- A source of technical assistance for member colleges.

Many of these services are provided through a variety of media of communication, such as:

- Annual AACJC Convention and Workshops—to promote the exchange of ideas and information among some 2,500 delegates from colleges nationwide. During the year, other conferences, workshops, and assemblies offer opportunities for special interest groups to come together, particularly for professional development.
- AACJC Letter—the only national newsletter exclusively for community, technical, and junior colleges. Personally edited by AACJC President Dale Parnell, this biweekly publication is for the busy executive who wants authoritative information in a hurry.
- Community and Junior College Journal—offers readable, worthwhile information about exemplary programs, practices, and people in articles by presidents, administrators, and professors sharing their best ideas (eight issues per year).

- Community, Technical, and Junior College Directory— updated annually, this indispensable source of essential information contains data gathered by AACJC directly from the colleges and other sources. AACJC research analysts are available year-round to answer questions from Association members, news media, and other organizations.
- Special publications— produced with the needs of college executives and staff in mind, these include a series of handy, concise Pocket Readers, monographs, reports, indicator briefs based on statistical data, legislative and legal briefs, bulletins, and brochures.

In addition, the Association serves as headquarters for a liaison network involving the entire AACJC constituency, which includes:

- Community, technical, and junior college presidents, administrators, and staff.
- State college associations and state administrators.
- Affiliated councils.

GOVERNANCE

Board of Directors

The Association is governed by a 31-member Board of Directors. The Board meets three times annually, in different parts of the country, to develop and monitor the policy framework within which the AACJC carries out its mission. Standing committees of the Board meet periodically during the year and provide for much of the in-depth work of the Board. Current committees, appointed by the chairman of the Board, are:

- Executive Committee— responsible for personnel matters, finance, and for emergency situations. Harold D. McAninch is chairman and Bernard J. Luskin is vice chairman. Members include the immediate past chairman, Joe B. Rushing, and chairs of four standing committees. Association officers who meet with the Executive Committee are Dale Parnell, president and chief executive officer; James W. White, vice president for membership and financial services and treasurer of the Association, and Connie Sutton, vice president for professional services and secretary to the Association.
- Committee on Legislation and Governmental Affairs— responsible for government-related matters in cooperation with the Association of Community College Trustees. Joshua L. Smith is chairman. Members are: John W. Casey, Dwight E. Davis, Eileen T. Farley, George D. Fields, Jr., Richard K. Greenfield, James C. Young. (This group, along with the trustees, forms the Joint Commission on Federal Relations.)
- Committee on Association Vitality and Publications— responsible for long-range planning and publications oversight. Richard C. Richardson, Jr., is chairman. Members are: Kathleen F. Arns, John W. Easley, James F. Gollattscheck, John W. Hakanson, Raymond E. Joslin, James Tatum.
- Committee on Convention, Awards and Councils— responsible for convention programs, determining national award winners, and review of council programs and affiliations. Judith S. Eaton is chairman. Members are: Rafael L. Cortada, Brian L. Donnelly, Richard J. Ernst, Dick N. Klassen, Dorothy A. Shields, Gene A. Whiddon.
- Committee on Directors and Membership Services— responsible for internal operations of the Board, membership services and Board nominations. Bill F. Stewart is chairman. Members are: Joseph P. Cosand, Cecil L. Groves, J.F. Hockaday, F. Dean Lillie, Mary M. Norman, Tom Spencer.

Board members normally serve terms of three years each, with one third of the Board elected each year. Eighteen directors are representatives of institutions, elected by the members; three are representatives of institutions, elected by the Board; six are representatives of the affiliated councils, elected by the AACJC membership; and one member is the immediate past chairman of the Board, elected by the Board. By constitutional authority, the majority of the Board must be chief executive officers.

Nominations of the institutional representatives are made by the Committee on Directors and Membership Services. While continually open to receive recommendations, the Committee contacts the institutional members in the early fall, seeking recommendations for the following year. The committee seeks persons capable and willing to bring dedicated and creative leadership to the Association and to the Board. With the recommendations from the field, together with its own experience, the Committee meets in the late fall to develop a slate of multiple nominations. Additional nominations can be made from the field following the committee's report. The name of any such person, qualified to be a member of the Board, is added to the annual ballot when supported by letters from at least 50 official institutional representatives.

Annual elections, by mail ballot, are conducted no later than April 15 of each year. Each member institution is authorized one ballot to be completed by the official institutional representative.

Further information about the Board of Directors may be obtained from the president or secretary of the Association.

Officers

There are five officers of the Association. The chairman and vice chairman of the Board are elected by the Board of Directors each spring to serve one year—July 1 through June 30. The president of the Association is appointed by the Board to serve for a time designated by the Board. The secretary and treasurer of the Association are designated by the president with the approval of the Board.

Current officers (1982-83) are:

Chairman of the Board of Directors
Harold D. McAninch

Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors
Bernard J. Luskin

President and Chief Executive Officer
Dale Parnell

Treasurer and Vice President
James W. White

Secretary and Vice President
Connie Sutton

Commissions

Two commissions have been created by the Board to provide guidance in specific areas of concern to the Association. Commission members are appointed by the chairman of the Board and normally serve terms of three years.

Commission chairs and the chair of the President's Academy serve as ex officio members of the Board of Directors.

- The Joint Commission on Federal Relations replaces the former Commission on Governmental Relations. The Joint Commission was formed by AACJC and the Association of Community College Trustees to unify the agenda of the two-year colleges in working with Congress and the federal agencies. Sixteen presidents, trustees, and state executives make up this "grass roots" voice of community colleges on national policy. Commission chairman is Judith Madonia, chairman of the board of Lincoln Land Community College, Illinois.

- The Commission on Small/Rural Community Colleges, composed of twelve chief executive officers from member institutions, focuses attention on the needs and concerns of small and rural colleges. Paul C. Gianini, Jr., president of Spoon River Community College, Illinois, is chairman.

President's Academy

The President's Academy devotes attention to the roles, welfare, and professional development of chief executive officers of AACJC member institutions. It provides opportunities to exchange ideas, a program for in-service professional development, and a means of expressing concerns of chief executive officers. Inquiries may be directed to Stephen A. Nicholson, Academy chairman and president of Mt. Hood Community College, Oregon.

Association of Community College Trustees

AACJC maintains close and cordial working relationships with the Association of Community College Trustees. ACCT serves more than 4,000 trustees, who shape policy and community support for some 750 American two-year colleges. Through its annual convention, other conferences and seminars, and varied information services, ACCT helps to equip governing boards and their members to oversee such diverse functions as systems management, collective bargaining, budget processes, performance evaluations, board retreats, and administrative searches. The ACCT president for 1982-83 is Reagan H. Legg, trustee of Midland College, Texas. William H. Meardy is executive director.

AFFILIATED COUNCILS

AACJC has introduced a system of councils through which the common interests of their members can be served. Councils provide individuals with the means to affiliate with the Association beyond official institutional representation. Within a flexible organizational arrangement, councils are encouraged to take initiatives in pursuing proposals and activities in support of Association and council goals.

Through a formal process, councils are recognized as affiliates for a specified period of time—usually three years. A regular review process established by the AACJC Board of Directors allows for extension of the recognition period. Each council is assigned at least one AACJC Board member and one member of the AACJC staff to act as liaisons. In addition, the Association's Constitution and Bylaws provide for six members of the AACJC Board to be elected by the institutional membership to serve as official council representatives on the Board.

Thirteen councils are presently affiliated with the Association:

American Association of Women in Community and Junior Colleges

The American Association of Women in Community and Junior Colleges (AAWCJC) is one of the largest and most responsive organizations working for the concerns of women in education. Formed in 1973, the Association represents its members on a state and ten-region basis. Steady increases in female students, staff, and educational professionals has had a dynamic effect on the growth and professional activities of AAWCJC. Key benefits of AAWCJC membership are a quarterly newsletter, a job bank, and a variety of professional development activities for women in two-year colleges at the local, state, and regional levels.

President: Muriel Kay Heimer, Provost, Cocoa Campus, Brevard Community College, Cocoa, Florida 39922; (305) 632-1111.

Community College Humanities Association

The Community College Humanities Association (CCHA) is dedicated to strengthening the humanities in community, technical, and junior colleges. CCHA serves as a catalyst in defining the issues facing humanities faculty and administrators, in finding solutions to problems in the field, and in establishing a communication network for all humanists. Special seminars, five annual regional meetings, a tri-annual newsletter, and an annual journal provide for the exchange of ideas and information, support the professional work of humanities faculty, and encourage scholarly activity in the humanistic disciplines.

President: Donald D. Schmeltekopf, Professor of Philosophy, Union County College, Cranford, New Jersey 07016; (201) 276-8136.

Council for Occupational Education

The Council for Occupational Education (COE) is concerned with issues, trends, and legislation related to postsecondary occupational education, human resource development, and the creation of technical training programs to reduce manpower shortages. COE represents faculty, mid-level administrators, deans, and college presidents, as well as individuals from business, organized labor, the military, and government. It sponsors two national professional development meetings yearly, publishes occasional newsletters, distributes the quarterly Technology Review Journal, prepares legislation for consideration by Congress, and encourages members to publish and disseminate materials on occupational education in two-year colleges.

President: Donald B. Smith, Central Administration, City Colleges of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois 60601; (312) 984-3103.

Council of Universities and Colleges

The purpose of the Council of Universities and Colleges (CUC) is to promote peer relationships and stimulate publication and research among professors housed in college and university graduate schools. Members of the Council are specialists in community, technical, and junior college issues (often having substantial experience as two-year college educators) and regard service to the applied field as one of their major responsibilities. Since these individuals spend a large portion of their time training personnel to function within two-year colleges, the Council also sees itself as an instrument to support professional development in the field. The association between CUC members and AACJC has been constant since the founding meeting of AACJC in 1920.

Chairman: Don A. Morgan, Department of Educational Administration and Higher Education, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455; (612) 373-5569.

Council on Black American Affairs

In 1972, the Council on Black American Affairs (CBAA) was established to provide a national body through which faculty, students, administrators, and nonteaching personnel could affiliate to foster more effective education and employment of black people. CBAA, working through its four regions, focuses on matters involving curricula, human resource development, data collection, information dissemination, and pursuing solutions to problems in education that confront black people. The following are Council priorities: (1) professional development of black leadership within colleges; (2) expansion of supportive services for low-income students; and (3) implementation of effective affirmative action programs.

Chairman: Carl M. Crawford, Provost, North Campus, Broward Community College, Coconut Creek, Florida, 33066; (305) 973-2201.

National Council for Community Relations

The National Council for Community Relations (NCCR) is a professional organization for specialists in college relations in two-year colleges in the U.S. and Canada. It was founded in 1974 to provide special services for people who share the tasks of marketing the college and communicating with its many publics. NCCR members work in a variety of information-related areas: media relations, editing and publications, coordination of campus and community events, high school/college relations, consumer information, alumni and governmental relations. Members include public information practitioners, higher-level administrators, and college presidents.

President: William J. Moylan, Administrator, Publications and Communications, Waukesha County Technical Institute, Pewaukee, Wisconsin 53072; (414) 548-5449.

National Council for Research and Planning

The National Council for Research and Planning (NCRP) provides a network for expression and exchange on matters of institutional management and advises AACJC on policy issues relating to research and information-based management. The Council also serves as a national forum for planning, coordinating, and conducting activities that promote research and information-based decision making in postsecondary, community-based institutions. NCRP products include the Community College Journal for Research and Planning, focusing on institutional management; Parameters, a bimonthly newsletter; position papers on policy issues; and a yearly series of workshops and forums.

President: E. Timothy Lightfield, Associate Vice President of Educational Services, Florida Junior College at Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Florida 32202; (904) 632-3245.

National Council for Resource Development

The purpose of the National Council for Resource Development (NCRD) is to assist two-year colleges in the acquisition of financial resources adequate to support their educational programs. To achieve this, the Council provides the institutions with: (1) assistance and information to encourage higher levels of financial support from both public and private sectors; (2) a vehicle for cooperation and communication in addressing issues and problems in the area of resource development; and (3) programs and activities designed to enhance the level of skill with which the profession of resource development is practiced in two-year institutions.

President: Richard Halvorson, Director, Planning and Contract Services, Washington State Community College District 17, Spokane, Washington 99207; (509) 456-2858.

National Council for Staff, Program and Organizational Development

The mission of the National Council for Staff, Program and Organizational Development (NCSPOD) is to promote staff and organization development in two-year colleges. NCSPOD offers a broad range of services and opportunities to its members, including the Network newsletter, a yearly conference and regional skill-building workshops, research and data dissemination, and a human resources referral directory. The Council is dedicated to: (1) developing innovative, effective approaches to staff, program, and organization development; (2) maintaining communication among organizations concerned with such efforts; (3) fostering research and evaluation in the field; and (4) generating means for self-development of persons interested in staff, program, and organization development.

Through national, regional, and state activities, NCIA sponsors a variety of meetings, conferences, and workshops on instructional matters. Each year the Council focuses on a different issue of interest and importance to its members, and this issue becomes the focus for an NCIA forum at the AACJC annual convention. A quarterly newsletter and yearly proceedings are published by the Council.

Council purposes include: (1) fostering the development of systems of community, technical, and junior colleges in the states: (2) providing a forum for exchange of information about trends and problems; (3) seeking ways to improve the competencies of state agencies; and (4) promoting coordination among the states in federal matters, including legislation. Interpreting the Data

Nineteen hundred eighty-two marks a significant year for community, technical, and junior college enrollment. While total enrollment in all colleges and universities suffered a 0.1 percent decline in 1982, enrollment in two-year colleges continued to rise. Fall term unduplicated headcount credit enrollment in community, technical, and junior colleges, as shown in Table A below, was 4,964,379. When compared to 1981's fall term enrollment of 4,834,433, this represents an additional 129,946 students or an increase of 2.69 percent.

For the first time since 1974, full-time enrollment outpaced part-time enrollment in all categories. A closer look at the data shows that public institutions experienced an increase in full-time enrollment of 3.73 percent, more than double the percent increase in part-time enrollment (1.80 percent). Independent institutions also showed a gain; full-time fall 1982 enrollment stands at 108,062, an increase of 11.73 percent. Total headcount credit figures for public and independent two-year colleges can be found in Tables B and C.

Data for the Directory were collected directly from the 1,219 community, technical, and junior colleges that make up the representative field of regionally accredited, associate-degree-granting colleges. Coincidentally, the total number of institutions remained the same over the previous year, although the mix of public and independent colleges differ. (See "Changes in Institutions.") It is important to note that the enrollment data in the 1983 Directory are compared against the 1981 totals as reported in Tables II, III, and IV (summary by states). The 1981 headcount credit figures as reported in these columns and Tables A, B, and C are different from the totals in the 1982 Directory due to institutional additions and deletions. Table D does not reflect these changes and the data are compared against the previous year's Directory totals.

Data collected in 1982 also report growing participation in service, recreational and life enrichment programs. This noncredit participation for academic year 1981-82 is reported in Table E as community education enrollment. To calculate how many people are actually served at two-year colleges in a complete year, the noncredit or community education figure of 4,359,941 should be combined with fall term credit headcount and an estimate of 50 percent additional credit students in other semesters. Data totals are as follows:

4.96 million fall term credit enrollment
2.48 million additional unduplicated headcount, second semester and summer sessions (estimated) credit enrollment
4.35 million fall term noncredit course enrollment
11.79 million persons

AACJC appreciates the response of the institutions and the opportunity of presenting this data to the public. Over the years, the AACJC Directory has become a valuable reference for many uses. That value is attributed to the excellent cooperation received from the institutions listed here and the state-level officials who assisted AACJC in identifying the colleges that should be served.

Any questions regarding the data or the methodology can be referred to the AACJC data office.

Constitution of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges*

Preamble

We who serve in community and junior colleges are unified in the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges by a common desire to assist in extending educational opportunity to all citizens of this nation.

We believe education is essential for realizing the fullest potential of each member of our society and that appropriate higher education should be available to all who can benefit from it. Though diverse in purpose, in type, in control, in size, and in geographic location, members of the Association share a singleness of concern and dedication to this educational mission.

Article I. Name

The name of this organization will be "American Association of Community and Junior Colleges."

Article II. Purposes

The Association is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and shall not engage in any activity which is not permitted by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) and described in Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any private individual except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services actually rendered. No substantial part of its activities shall be for carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and it shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Pursuant to these purposes, the Association shall promote the sound growth of community and junior colleges and shall help create in them an atmosphere conducive to learning. It shall contribute in every practical way to the development of a better human environment in America by working for the extension of full educational opportunity to all Americans on an equitable basis, qualitatively and quantitatively, and by striving for the elimination of all forms of discrimination whether by race, creed, sex, or financial condition.

Article III. Membership

Section 1. The members of this organization shall be limited to community, junior, and technical colleges, and similar postsecondary institutions which are not private foundations by reasons of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Representatives of provisional institutional members are entitled to all privileges of the full institutional member of the Association except that they are ineligible to hold elective office. Provisional institutional members may hold this classification for five years, and during this time the Association will use appropriate resources to assist the institution to obtain the necessary accreditation.

Section 2. chief executive officer has designated, in writing, another individual.

II. Organizational Structure

1. Officers and Directors

Directors shall serve for no more than two complete terms. A complete term shall normally be three years; however, a term of two years or more shall be considered a complete term.

Officers of the Board of Directors shall be a chairman and a vice chairman, elected by members of the Board. Election of the officers shall take place at the spring meeting of the Board, with term of office to be for one year, beginning July 1 of the year of their election. The elected chairman and the elected vice chairman shall be limited to serving one term in their respective offices.

2. Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors shall have an executive committee from its own membership, a committee on convention and awards, a committee on directors and councils, a committee on legislation, and a committee on Association vitality. It may also establish ad hoc committees. These committees shall be appointed by the chairman of the Board with approval of the Board.

3. Meetings of the Board

The Board of Directors shall meet at least twice a year. Written notice of all Board meetings shall be sent to the Directors at least thirty (30) days in advance.

4. Other Groups

The Board of Directors may authorize the creation or discontinuance of commissions, committees, task forces, or similar groups responsible for broad areas of Association activities under the guidance and direction of the Board. The Board of Directors shall establish the tenure of members of such commissions and committees. The chairman of the Board shall appoint the members of committees, commissions, and other such groups.

5. Responsibilities of the President

The president of the Association shall have general administrative supervision of the affairs of the Association and shall be responsible for the execution of such plans and policies as the Board of Directors may authorize, direct, or approve. He shall assign staff members appropriate titles and duties. He shall be ex officio a member of all commissions and committees excepting the nominating committee. He shall report annually to the Association, and shall make such other reports as the Board of Directors may request. He shall prepare and recommend an annual budget to the Board of Directors. He shall be responsible for the collection of dues and for the custody of funds of the Association and shall make payments therefrom in accordance with the authorizations and directions of the Board of Directors. He shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, or for such term as the Board of Directors may determine. A secretary and a treasurer may be designated by the president with approval of the Board of Directors.

6. Delegation of Authority

The Board of Directors, the governing body of the Association, may at its discretion delegate portions of its authority (except approval of the budget) to the specific officers of the Association, to committees of the Board or to councils, commissions, and committees of the Association.

7. Councils

The Board may from time to time enter into an agreement with councils, which are organized and operate for purposes which contribute to and significantly benefit the purposes of the Association. Such an agreement, for a specified period of time, will constitute a formal affiliation with the Association. Such councils shall be organized and operated in a manner consistent with rules and regulations approved by the Board. For a council to become officially affiliated with the Association, it must submit a written request to the Board of Directors setting forth its purposes, membership criteria, form of governance, and financial structure. Approval of the Board and written notification to the council constitute official recognition and affiliation with the Association. The Board may withdraw formal affiliation of a council by a written ninety (90) day notice. Any notice of withdrawal must set forth the reason. A group so affected may be granted a hearing by the Board if an appeal is filed within thirty (30) days after such notice is mailed by the Board.

III. Nominations

1. Nominations for the eighteen institutional representatives shall be by the Board of Directors' committee on directors. Additional nominations may be made from the membership of institutional representatives when supported by fifty signatures of institutional representatives.

2. Nominations for the eighteen institutional representatives, including source and biographical statements about nominees, shall constitute a mail ballot to be sent to the official institutional representatives by April 15 of each year.

3. The Board of Directors shall elect its at-large members from nominations made by the Board's committee on directors, with results announced to the membership at the earliest practical date following election.

4. Each recognized council not represented on the Board of Directors, including those councils whose terms are to end in the current Board year, will be invited to submit a nomination to the Board's Committee on Directors. This nomination from each council shall be by whatever procedure is endorsed by a decision of the members of each council concerned. If a council nominee is officially connected with an institution eligible for membership in the Association, that institution must be an institutional member. The nominations for the recognized councils, together with source and biographical statements about the nominees shall be a part of the mail ballot to be sent to the official institutional representatives by April 15 of each year.

5. In cases of vacancies, replacements are to be made for the remainder of the membership year by appointment of the Board of Directors.

IV. Succession of Officers and Directors

1. Members of the Board shall be considered to be ineligible to serve in the category in which they were elected, if by reason of change of position they no longer represent that category. The term of office of such a member shall be terminated effective the date of change.

V. Membership Lists

1. Names of all members shall be published annually.

2. Any members whose dues are unpaid for the preceding year shall be dropped from the membership list.

3. Institutions dropped for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by making a new application for membership in which case the Board may require the payment of delinquent dues.

VI. Fiscal Policy

1. The fiscal year of the Association shall begin January 1 and close on December 31. The Board of Directors shall have authority to change the fiscal year.

2. The Board of Directors shall adopt an annual budget for each fiscal year.

3. The Association, on approval by the Board of Directors, may accept grants from foundations and other appropriate donors and enter into contract with the federal government and other appropriate agencies to pursue investigations and perform services consistent with Association objectives.

4. There shall be an annual audit of the general financial condition and operations of the Association by a certified public accountant.

5. The president and all employees of the Association office who handle any part of the funds of the Association shall be bonded; the amount of the bonds to be determined by the Board of Directors and paid for by the Association.

VII. Annual Meeting

1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at a time and place determined by the Board. Written notice of all meetings shall be sent to all members at least two weeks in advance.

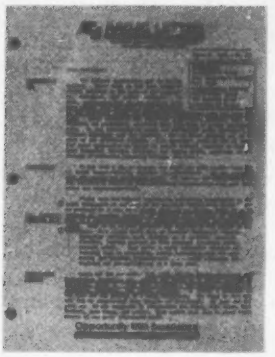
PUBLICATIONS

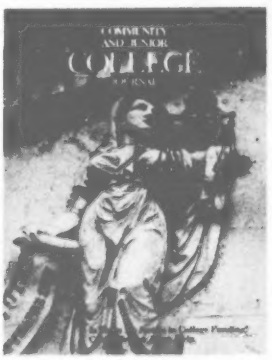
Periodicals

AACJC Letter

The only national biweekly newsletter exclusively for community, technical, and junior college leaders. Personally edited by AACJC President Dale Parnell, a former community college president and chancellor who is intimately acquainted with the requirements of administrators. This four-page publication is designed for the busy executive who wants authoritative information while it is fresh. Good news in current developments as well as early warnings about problems to be faced are regularly featured. Timely, topical "briefs" about legislation impacting on colleges, cost-effective management, the latest statistical data, marketing and advancement opportunities, and other "must have" information are regular inserts in the Letter.

Published biweekly, 26 issues per year. $40 per single subscription or $26 per group subscription (10 or more copies delivered to one address).





Community and Junior College Journal

The only national magazine devoted exclusively to the interests of people involved in community-based education and services provided by community, technical, and junior colleges. For more than half a century, the Journal has offered readable, worthwhile information about exemplary programs, practices, and policies. It provides a sought-after opportunity for administrators and faculty to publish their best ideas. Its purpose is to assist in the implementation of the Mission and Goals of the Association.
